Sharing Tourism

Region: Northland

Sharing Tourism represents three iconic Northland museums/galleries: Hundertwasser Art Centre & Wairau Māori Art Gallery, Kiwi North and Claphams Clocks, all located in Whangarei. A Whāngarei Museum/Gallery Pass is available from October 2020. The Hundertwasser Art Centre opens 2020 in the Town Basin. Like the artist's work, this brightly coloured, environmentally friendly building will be multi-faceted with features including a state-of-the-art main gallery of Hundertwasser's work and contemporary Māori Art Gallery. Claphams National Clock Museum (also in the Town Basin) is home to 2100 clocks and timepieces. From ancient sun, sand and water clocks, to rare antique clocks, and wacky, zany, unbelievable clocks. Free guided tours are available. Kiwi North features Whāngarei Museum, Kiwi House and Heritage Park overlooking Whangarei City. In the nocturnal Kiwi House, you can view the only captive Kiwi and Tuatara in Northland. Whāngarei Museum exhibitions include natural history displays and early Maori European settler history.

GO Rentals

Region: Auckland

Passenger Service Vehicles Since late 2018

GO Rentals have progressively invested in a range of Passenger Service Vehicles specifically for the growing Driver/Guided small tour market. Originally driven by a demand from existing trade partners for compliant vans created by a late change to regulations prior to the 2018 high season, GO Rentals purchased new 12 Seater Hiace Vans specifically converted to meet the new requirements. Since that time GO has built on this fleet and in November 2018 will also introduce Toyota Highlander GXL 4x4's specially converted for purpose for a smaller, more personalised experience. Both vehicles are enhanced with additional features for passenger comfort. All include a caged luggage hold in addition to standard and other technical features required to make them compliant. The 12 Seater Vans also include a PA system. GO aim to be a prime provider of Passenger Service Vehicles to the trade and bookings may be actioned by Agents direct, via Inbound Tour Operators or through GO Rentals partnerships with other industry tour guiding specialists ProGuides and Road Guru. ProGuides professional tour guide Axel Knauer had this to say about the GO product and service ... "As a professional Tour Guide in New Zealand, and member of ProGuides New Zealand, I frequently drive small to mid-size coaches. When I first used a GO Rentals vehicle I was immediately impressed with the high level of professionalism. The vehicles are immaculate, the documentation well prepared and the check-in and check-out very streamlined".

Redwoods Treewalk

Region: Rotorua

New Product #1 - launched July 2018

A new Highwalk has been launched at the Redwoods Treewalk, the new addition is included as an optional loop on the current Treewalk route. Featuring a grated see through floor, ranging in height from 12m to 20 meters. At over 100 meters long and connecting to four new see through platforms - "the experience is very different from the Treewalk. It is targeted at those who wanted a little more thrill and vertical height" says co-founder Bruce Thomassen. At close to 20 meters of vertical height at its highest point, the new Highwalk brings visitors closer to the canopy of the Redwood giants and magnificent views of silver ferns, tree ferns and the younger Redwood trees.

New Product #2 "The Giant"

A new $100k product development displaying an ancient Californian Giant Redwood ring, it was proudly opened on 31 October 2018 when the Duke & Duchess of Sussex visited the Redwoods Treewalk attraction. This amazing piece of history which grew for over 2000 years features a timeline from seedling to when "The Giant" was chopped down in 1952 in California, USA. The exhibit is included within the Treewalk and at over 3 metres in diameter leaves visitors in awe of the scale and size of these magnificent trees. The seeds for Rotorua's own Redwood forest were sourced from California in the late 1800s. The exhibit also tells the story of the ancient whakapapa linkages between New Zealand Kauri and Redwood.

Ridgeline Adventures & Reko

Region: Otago

We will launch our new REKO* (pronounced ray - ko) private guiding brand at TRENZ 2019. REKO offers custom private touring/transfer options in Wanaka, Queenstown and throughout the South Island. REKO clients get to take part in experiences truly bespoke to their needs and expectations - whether it be tailored farm tours, photography tours, guided walks, wine tours, winter ski transfers, Wanaka day tours from Queenstown, transfers and conservation education/participation tours, or a mixture of all of these options. With more than 25 years guiding experience in the South Island, our knowledge and access into the South Island's hidden gems is second-to-none. REKO* is named after the first private guide in the Wanaka and Queenstown. In 1853 Chief Reko was hired by one of the first Europeans in the Queenstown/Wanaka area - Nathaniel Chalmers - to guide him through the Queenstown and Wanaka region in search of suitable land to farm sheep. Our exciting new REKO brand celebrates Reko's story and aims continue his legacy, offering bespoke private tour options into and around this spectacular region.

Rotorua Canopy Tours

Region: Rotorua

Rotorua Canopy Tours opened the Ultimate Canopy Tour in July 2018. This is a higher value and more immersive experience than the company's flagship experience - the Original Canopy Tour. It is a 3 1/2 hour epic adventure deep into ancient forest, designed to position Rotorua Canopy Tours as leaders in high value nature based adventure tourism. The Ultimate Canopy Tour takes eco-tourism to a whole new level with mind-blowing features including a cliff top walkway, spiral and suspended staircases and a controlled descent from a towering tree down to the forest floor below. The longest zipline is 400m and will have you soaring across a fern-filled valley. Small groups of up to 10 people are escorted through the Ultimate Canopy Tour by knowledgeable Kiwi guides and treated to fascinating commentary about the history, ecology and birdlife of this area. Unlike most other forests, this location has never been logged and has stood untouched for 1000 years. A portion of each ticket sold goes towards pest eradication efforts and the success of the programme means North Island robins now often visit you throughout the tour and eat mealworms right out of your hand! The forest is alive with bird song and is flourishing before your eyes. Tour participants must be at least 10 years-old and under 120kg. Our guides are highly trained to keep you safe, make you smile, teach you amazing things and create memories that will last a lifetime.

Ruapehu Alpine Lifts

Region: Ruapehu

Opening in 2019, the Sky Waka Gondola at Whakapapa is a $25 million state of the art visitor experience in the heart of the Tongariro National Park on Mt Ruapehu. The Sky Waka - on order from Italian based company Leitner - is now under construction and is set to transform the Mt Ruapehu visitor experience. It is one of only two of its design in the world. Work preparing for the gondola's arrival continues throughout the summer with a target launch date of 1 June 2019 to coincide with the ski season opening. Fifty gondola cabins will feature floor to ceiling glass for breath-taking views, internal ski racks, audio and lighting and individual leather seats offering business-class luxury to passengers befitting of the UNESCO Dual World Heritage status of Whakapapa Ski Area. Each cabin accommodates 10 passengers and even the tallest skiers will be able to stand upright in the cabin with more than 2m of internal clearance. The gondola will run from the Top of the Bruce base area directly to the award-winning Knoll Ridge Café. The Sky Waka Gondola will transform the mountain for skiers as well as sightseers, and also boost the local economy. This project will change the traditional flow of visitors throughout the North Island creating a compelling reason to venture off the beaten track deep into the Ruapehu district to experience this world-class attraction and the vibrant communities nearby.

Tourism Waitaki

Region: Waitaki

Proudly introducing the 'Waitaki Whitestone Geopark', the first in New Zealand and Oceania. The park is centred in Te Waipounamu (South Island) of Aotearoa. Spanning from the Southern Alps to the Pacific Ocean its steeped in ancient culture and history with the Māori who settled first followed by European settlers in the mid-1800's. It was limestone from the ground used to build their stately homes and businesses; 150 years later these still stand, restored in Oamaru's Victorian Precinct. From New Zealand's most fertile soils grow an abundance of whole-food, craft beers and boutique wines; providing visitors with a geo-gastronomy treat at every turn. Taking a journey of adventure through the geopark you can bike the great Alps 2 Ocean Cycle Trail, jet boat on the Waitaki River, experience it by air in gliders or helicopters, skiing in winter then soak in hot tubs. Most importantly, all-year-round come to discover our geo-wonderland, perfected through time for your enjoyment!

Weta Workshop

Region: Wellington

Top Secret Auckland Project; Strange things are happening on Federal Street. Rumour has it Weta Workshop's motley crew are moving in. A new facility for a new decade. An immersive visitor attraction in an undisclosed location. A procession of storage trucks coming and going late at night, when prying eyes are tucked up tight.

Mysterious, monstrous crates with stencilled lettering: FRAGILE, HEAVY, DANGEROUS, POISONOUS. Ominous and peculiar figures seen creeping in the shadows. Other-worldly silhouettes sizing up the place. Banging. Crashing. Groaning. Shrieking. That sinking feeling. Think of fleeing. Fly, YOU FOOLS! But wait... what's that? Suddenly, the beat of distant drums below, or is that above? It's hard to know. What are they building, and where? And what? And why? Inquiring minds demand answers but probably won't get them. Not yet. Now is not the time and TRENZ is not the place. It's all hush-hush, Precious. There is, however, one thing you can be sure of... the Weta

Workshop crew want you and your clients to play a part. Come 2020, they'll be opening their doors to everyone with an adventurer's heart and an artist's spirit. It's a chance for those who wonder what it's like behind the curtain to tiptoe back there. And how, precisely, does one do that? You'll have to come by and find out for yourself. Our TRENZ crew will be more than happy to evade your questions.
